This year marks the 25th edition of the Tokyo International Film Festival (TIFF). As the only Japanese Film Festival accredited by the International Federation of Film Producers Associations (FIAPF). This is the Largest Film Festival in Asia.

Over the nine days of the Festival, films from a variety of genres will be shown in several intriguing sections:

- Competition, which selects the "Tokyo Sakura Grand Prix" from a carefully chosen ensemble of premiere films presented by both talented first-timers and recognized directors
- Special Screenings, which premieres highly entertaining films prior to their public release in Japan
- Winds of Asia-Middle East, which boasts the largest number of films and audiences in all the TIFF screenings
- Japanese Eyes, which showcases a broad range of Japanese films for worldwide audiences
- Natural TIFF highlighting films that explore the coexistence of making and nature.
